

DAVID LEO DUGGAN
MARCH 26, 1967 -
FEBRUARY 9, 2006

David's passion was photography. He had a talent for "framing the shot." He always found the angle that made the most mundane subjects beautiful and novel. He loved playing with reflections and with light. David graduated at the top of his class in Applied Photography at Sheridan College, Oakville, in 1996. He moved to Vancouver shortly thereafter.

David's occupation was in Hospitality. He excelled as a hotel front desk manager. David was named Employee of the Year at the Century Plaza Hotel in 2002. In 2001 The mayor of Vancouver presented him with the City of Vancouver Tourism Award. David earned the Team Service Award in 1998 at the Westin Bayshore. He was named Employee of the Month at Toronto's Park Plaza Hotel in September 1996. David graduated from the Hotel and Convention Management program at Centennial College of Applied Arts & Technology, Scarborough, in 1989. David traveled the world, with sojourns to New Zealand, Switzerland, Morocco and the Czech Republic, as well as sea to sea across Canada. He started out in Whitby, Ontario, where he grew up on an apple farm.

David passed away surrounded by his loved ones. Special thanks to staff at ICU-2, Vancouver General, who gave him the best care following his fall. Words cannot express the pain and sorrow from his unexpected and tragic death. David you are truly loved and sadly missed. Over and out.
